A Brief History

Havre de Grace is a small City, rich in history, located at the confluence of the Susquehanna River and the Chesapeake Bay. It was founded in 1782 and incorporated in 1785. Marquis de Lafayette is credited with naming the City as he was impressed by the town's resemblance to Le Havre, France. Notably, Havre de Grace was a candidate for the Capital of the United States. However, in 1789 the House of Representatives voted on the permanent location, the tie-breaker vote, between Havre de Grace and Washington DC, was cast by the Speaker. During the War of 1812, John O'Neill single-handedly attempted to defend Havre de Grace with cannon and musket fire when it was attacked and burned to the ground by fifteen barges of British soldiers on May 3, 1813. In the early 20th century the city became nationally known for its race track and double-decker bridge. For more information on our history stop by the Visitor Center at 450 Pennington Ave.
